PENNSYLVANIA CLE CREDIT

In order to allow New Jersey attorneys who are also licensed in Pennsylvania to more conveniently satisfy their Pennsylvania CLE requirements, NJICLE became an approved CLE sponsor with the Pennsylvania CLE Board. As a result, ICLE must comply with the rules and regulations promulgated by the Pennsylvania CLE Board and must also collect the appropriate fees required.

To ensure that our registrants receive the appropriate credits, NJICLE must report the names and Pennsylvania Attorney ID numbers to the Pennsylvania CLE Board within 30 days following completion of the seminar. Therefore, attorneys who wish to receive Pennsylvania CLE credits, must complete the attendance form at the bottom of this page -- particularly your name, your Pennsylvania Attorney ID number and signature -- and return the form to the NJICLE representative at the end of each seminar attended with the appropriate processing fee (check made payable to ICLE) attached.

PLEASE DO NOT SUBMIT FORM WITHOUT PENNSYLVANIA I.D. NUMBER OR PAYMENT. INSTEAD, MAIL COMPLETED FORM AND PAYMENT WITHIN ONE WEEK TO SUJATA GUPTA AT ICLE, One Constitution Square, New Brunswick, NJ 08901.

An attorney requesting Pennsylvania credit who arrives late or must leave early, may turn in the form but the ICLE representative must indicate the time at which the attorney arrived or left. Under these circumstances, a registrant may not receive the full hours of credit from the Pennsylvania CLE Board.
