

New Jersey Workers' Compensation Court Update:

The Director of the Division has advised that attorneys are filing routine motions for medical and temporary disability benefits as "Emergent Motions." He advises that if the motion does not meet the statutory criteria of an "emergent motion" it will not get listed and the filing attorney is potentially subject to sanctions.